From

From the Amsterdam Gazette &c. dated June 12.
Vienna, May 30. The Prince of Lichtenstein, who came hither from Presbourg, to give the Emperour an Account of what has been transacted in the Diet, will return thither in a few Days. There being little Appearance of an Accommodation, the Court is taken up with putting the Army in Hungary into a Condition to act offensively, and Recruits and new Levies which arrive daily from the hereditary Countries, are hasten'd thither. The Malecontents continue their Excursions into Moravia; but we hear that a Detachment of 300 Imperial Horse have taken Prisoner the Party-Leader Ghenger-Budai, cutting in Pieces all his Men except 7. The Emperour has made Prince Charles Alexander of Wirtemberg, and Prince Charles of Baden-Dourlach, Generals of Artillery.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 30.
Vienna, May 30. The Inhabitants of Moravia complain that they are not duly protected against the Incurfions of the Malecontents; and we hear that some of them have join'd the Malecontents. General Heister is gone for Hungary, whether all the Officers of the Troops there are also order'd: That General has represented, that for want of Money he shall not be able to do the Service expected from him.
